

I am completely against using cell phones on airborne aircraft. Cell phone use is disruptive to other passengers which promotes airplane rage and arguments. For this reason I regard airborne cell phone use as an unacceptable security risk.

Duane Anderson